Additional Information Regarding OptiFlox® System at Australian Mineral Sands Operation

SciDev Ltd (ASX: SDV) ('SciDev' or 'the Company') refers to its announcement of 3 September 2018 and advises that the commercial trial of an OptiFlox® System will take place at an Iluka Resources Ltd mineral sands operation. The trial is expected to run for a period of approximately three to six months.

This OptiFlox® System installation will represent the fifth installation in Australia across four industries; thermal coal extraction, dairy manufacturing, coking coal extraction and mineral sands production.

Yours Sincerely
SciDev Ltd
